THE INCREDIBLE SHRINKING MAILMAN

Gott enjoys the pain as he gears up for his comeback with L.A.

By JOHN NADEL

VERO BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Jim Gott, hardly a masochist, enjoys the pain he feels in his pitching arm these days.

It's what he considers to be nor-most a year since his last pitch in a game.

"Pitching again was an unbelievable feeling after being off so long," Gott said. "All of a sudden, you get a chance to go out there. I was very excited and very appre-

Follow the Rules When Addressing Christmas Cards

• How do you address a Christmas card to a widow? A divorcee? A business acquaintance? Here are some tips on cards:

Generally speaking, greetings fall into two classes, formal and informal. If you use printed or engraved cards for formal use, the title Miss, Mr., or Mr. and Mrs. should preferably appear above the greeting. For instance: "Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stanyon wish you a Merry Christmas," rather than "A Merry Christmas from Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stanyon."

On informal cards, signed in ink, the husband's or wife's name should come first, although ordinarily the person signing would put his own name last. In general, the husband's name comes first. These can be signed "Bob and Betty," or "Bob and Betty Bentley," depending on how well the acquaintance knows you.

No card should ever be sent without a Mr., Mrs. or Miss prefix. An unmarried woman is always addressed as "Miss." A married woman, whether her husband is alive or not, is addressed with "Mrs." prefixed to her husband's full name. Since a woman's maiden name is used only on legal papers or when she uses it professionally, a divorcee's maiden name may be used if it's been established by legal procedure.

Cards to a married couple should be addressed Mr. and Mrs., even though you may know only one of
